FRANK SCHMIDT

for City Council

After numerous requests for my opinion on the proposed amendments which are on the ballot for April 11, 1950, I offer the following:

1. Vote "No." We pay a City Manager 10,000 dollars per year. We should let him earn it. He is the administrator, the Council should be legislative only.
2. Vote "Yes." This is just good business.
3. Vote "Yes." It is a fair request.
4. Vote "Yes." This is 100% American.
5. Vote "No." The oral communications of the people should be welcome.
6. Vote "Yes." The plugging of loop holes is a good idea.
7. Vote "Yes." We should know the whole story when we vote.
8. Vote "Yes." A legal method to correct a mistake is sound business.
9. Vote "NO," "NO," "NO."
10. Vote "No." No Council should have such great power.
11. Vote "No." The City Attorney should be an elector of the City. The City Council should appoint or remove the City Prosecutor.
12. Vote "Yes." This would set a definite time for an answer.
13. Vote "No." Why should you rob Peter to pay Paul. The payment of any loan should be from a budgeted source.
14. Vote "Yes." We should have a Civil Court in our own City.

Proposition No. 1—Vote No. But DEFINITELY
